

Name: _____

Date: _____

Civil Rights Compliance Quiz

Discrimination is defined as the _____ or _____ treatment of different categories of people and groups based on characteristics.

Training is required so that people involved in _____ administration of programs that receive Federal financial assistance understand civil rights related laws, regulations, procedures and directives.

Local agencies are responsible for training their managers and staff who interact with _____ or _____ on an _____ basis.

New staff must receive Civil Rights training _____ participating in _____ activities.

For the collection and use of data provided by our guests, _____ or _____ is preferred method of obtaining data.

For the collection and use of data provided by our guests, cannot be required to furnish information regarding their _____ or _____.

Anyone alleging discrimination has the right to file a complaint within _____ days of the alleged discriminatory action.

A protected class is any person or group of people who have characteristics for which discrimination is prohibited based on a _____, _____, or _____.

The And Justice For All poster must be displayed in a _____ location for all to view.

Conflict resolution is the process by which two or more parties reach a _____ resolution to a dispute.